- A man with strong will be able to success in every walks of life. He will not be discouraged anymore. He firmly neglects all the difficulties. He finds that all the troubles disappear from his path due to his strong determination. He then reaches his goal and is crowned with success. But when we compare a strong-willed man with a weak-minded man, then a weak-minded man gets frightened at the sight of slight difficulty. He gives it up everything in life due to lack of determination. Therefore, there is no short-cut to success. Success depends on hard work and strong will and determination of a person.

Unit-IV

4. (a) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end: 05
- There was a time when India was noted all over the world as a glorious centre of education and culture where students from all over the world used to pour in. The educational and cultural centers of Nalanda, Takshila, Prayag attracted students from places, as far as Egypt, Greece, China, Ceylon and Indonesia. It was an ideal system of education which apart from disseminating sweetness and light, infused into the mind of the pupils a spiritual urge for coming in contact with the kingdom of the Absolute. But now when we look at the present state of affairs in our country; the change shocks as deeply. The defect of our existing educational system that requires the immediate and earnest consideration of all those who are interested in the welfare of the country, is its excessively passive and mechanical character. The students play no active role in the attainment of knowledge. They simply cover the windows of their intellectual and spiritual personality. The present system of education makes the students bookworms and not the creative thinkers.

Questions:
