

Program Outcomes

Master of Arts (M.A.)

Through the P.G. program the students are made aware of their respective subjects. They also know about the various research methods and helps them to prepare for various competitive exams.

M.A. Hindi

The study of Hindi Literature helps in understanding the Indian culture. It helps for securing jobs as teacher, translator, administrative posts etc.

M.A. Economics

Students, who studying economics can analyse economic issues and problems. They understand the banking system also.

M.A. Political Science

Students are made aware of elections national and international relationship of various countries. For competitive exams they get the current knowledge.

M.A. History

Students of this subject learn about the cultural heritage of the country. It creates an interest in the history of India as well as other countries.

M.A. Sociology

Sociology develops an interest in the social norms of society. Social relations, changes and its results are seen in Indian society.

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)

In this course students are developed interest in literature, realization of human values and made dutiful citizens of the country.

Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.)

Students seeking this course are made known of all scientific theories up to graduation level. They are made aware about recent development in subject related field with latest development. In this course student has a strong base to post graduation courses. Through scientific experiment the theory is made as clear as possible.

Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.)

Students of B.Com. are made aware of commercial sense. They also get to know about budget, economics and commercial values. They are prepared for NET, SET and Bank Entrance Exams.

Bachelor of Computer Application (B.C.A.)

Students of B.C.A. get immense knowledge on computer application. Their career is prepared for information technology. This course is a bridge between computer industry and business leaders to initiate innovation.